

Neighborhood Resource Center 1218 East Oak St, New Albany

The Cardinal Ritter Birthplace Foundation, Inc. (CRBFI) Board of Directors has authorized the usage of the newly renovated Neighborhood Resource Center (NRC) for local, nonprofit organizations as a meeting and community space for educational purposes, charitable works, neighborhood fellowship, and community engagement. The NRC is a comfortable, state-of-the-art, ADA-accessible facility that can accommodate several seating configurations. With a capacity of 75 persons, the NRC provides the perfect choice for your next meeting or function for small to mid-sized groups.

We are pleased to support your efforts by providing the Neighborhood Resource Center at no cost to your nonprofit organization.
