

LECTURE ON EXORCISM DRAWS RAPT AUDIENCE!

The Cardinal Ritter Birthplace Foundation, Inc. (CRBFI) in concert with the Knights of Columbus Cardinal Ritter Council 1221 (K of C) in New Albany sponsored an evening with FATHER VINCENT LAMPERT – Archdiocese of Indianapolis Exorcist on March 12, 2004.

The free and open-to-the-public evening began with a one-hour Meet & Greet where guests enjoyed personally meeting Fr. Lampert and were treated to an array of delicious hor d'oeuvres and a cash bar.

CRBFI Chair John Blocker (with microphone below), and K of C past Grand Knight and current CRBFI Board member Mike Carter, orchestrated the event and introduced Fr. Lampert to an enthusiastic audience at the K of C Clubhouse.

Fr. Lampert's presentation captivated the estimated 230 attendees, as did his very informative Q & A session that followed.

After the 90-minute program, Fr. Lampert remained to meet, greet, and sign copies of his book entitled EXORCISM – The Battle Against Satan and his Demons (Emmaus Road Publishing).

A graduate of St. Meinrad College, Lampert was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis in 1991. He currently serves as Pastor of St. Michael and St. Peter Parishes in Brookville, Indiana. He was appointed Exorcist of the archdiocese in 2005. He received related training in Rome and is a member of the International Association of Exorcist.

We extend our sincere thanks to Fr. Lampert for sharing his time and wisdom with the New Albany community.
